

As the saying goes, if it ain't broke, don't fix it! Indiana has a very good "No Call List" in force and we are very happy with it. Why go to all the expense to create a federal list that may undo some of the good points we have. If a federal list is made up, please don't let it override our Indiana list.